PORTRAITS IN MORE DETAIL WORKSHOP

Instructor: Debra Bannister

This workshop will focus on analyzing, drawing and painting the finer anatomical features and artistic aspects of a facial portrait as well as the more creative side of expressing that person's personality. We will examine the effects of aging from youth to mature person, how this changes our features and how we express this in our paintings. There will also be some discussion about placing people in portraits and larger settings.

Participants will be working from photos and other drawings in the workshop. Participants are encouraged to bring a variety of photos (young to older) e.g. daughter, son, grandchild, husband or wife, friend or a famous celebrity that they would like to analyze, draw and paint in this workshop. Photo sizes recommended: 5x7 to 8x10. Larger photos make it easier to analyze fine anatomical features. A supply list will be sent out in August to participants attending this workshop.

Wed., Aug 29, Thurs., Aug. 30, '18 (2 days)

10:00am-4:00pm

Registration Fee: $130

Bridge – Competitive Bidding

“Competitive bidding covers the information needed when both partnerships are bidding during the auction. We still want to get to our best contract, but we also try to make it as difficult as possible for the opponents to reach their best spot.”

~ Audrey Grant, Bridge Basics II

Each lesson will include an introductory lesson on a competitive bidding topic and multiple practice hands and exercises to reinforce the concepts. Topics include: Pre-emptive opening bids (at the two and three level), overcalls and takeout doubles.

Beginner Bridge 2

This lesson series builds on concepts introduced in the Beginner Bridge course. We will continue to practice the basics of opening the bidding at the one level. We will also introduce the take-out double, preempts and big hand bidding. Also welcome are students of bridge who have not played for a while or who would like to consolidate some basic bidding and play concepts. In each two hour class we will deal, bid and play a variety of hands. There isn't a specific textbook for this course but handouts will be provided for a nominal fee.

Momiji Health Care Society

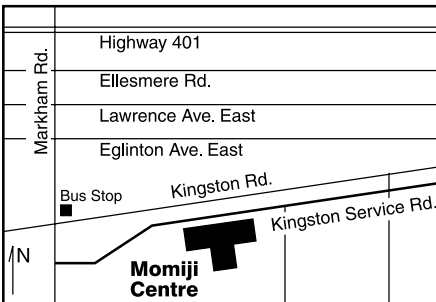

Respect, dignity and independence for our seniors

Vision

Momiji commits to serve our seniors in our community with excellence.

Mission Statement

Momiji Health Care Society is a not-for-profit charitable organization whose objective is to assist seniors, primarily of Japanese Canadian descent, to live independently in their own homes as long as possible by arranging for services. When needed, Momiji will assist individuals in finding appropriate accommodation, and services to maximize their independence, health, and personal growth, where the seniors can enjoy an enriched quality of life.
