Respect, Dignity and Independence for Our Seniors

MOMIJI@HOME

Most seniors have the goal to age in their own homes and avoid institutional living. Since 1992, Momiji Health Care Society has been providing a full range of health care services to help make this goal a reality for its residents at 3555 Kingston Road.

Now Momiji@Home brings this same level of care into your home and neighbourhood using the same philosophy of respect, dignity and independence for seniors. Whether you need occasional or ongoing care for yourself or a loved one, you can rest assured knowing Momiji@Home's culturally-sensitive health care professionals are available to assist you with your needs.
